Coming and Going News!

Please join us in wishing Emilie Mobley and her family best wishes in their move back to the area. Emilie has been blessed with the teaching expertise of Emilie for the past eight years, and her daughter is now a high school graduate. Emilie leaves the class in the able hands of Nancy Fernandez, currently our middle school spanish teacher. Nancy will take over the role of lead teacher in January. Please say hello to Nancy and Emilie as they embark on their new adventures!

Special Evening Event

For Emilie's lower elementary class parents!

Please join us for an adult social hour to officially welcome Nancy Fernandez to the classroom on December 9 from 7-8pm. This event will be held in the classroom.

Karate Class Form

We apologize to those who experienced trouble accessing the Karate Class form on here or go to the School Forms page on the website. Thank you for bearing with our challenges!

Fundraising Matters~From Martha's Desk

Thank you to the Parent Volunteers who assisted with Grandparents Day! From food assistance, you made this day a wonderful experience for our children and their special needs students were a huge help as well as all the classroom photographers and Vincent and the children with the interviews. Lots of pictures were taken; check out Schoolicity to view just how wonderful Grandparents Day is each and every year!

Thanksgiving Feast at Emory 1 and 2

Before our holiday break, the Emory afternoon children had their Thanksgiving feast. Among the food they had were tuna, salmon, turkey, sweet potatoes, corn, beans, nuts, grapes, bread, and freshly made butter. They tried hard to have the foods the Pilgrims and Indians might have had at the first thanksgiving. We had corn pudding for dessert followed by a Pilgrim dance. The list of things the children were grateful for included "family, friends, the universe, the galaxy, and food"!
